Primary Care Service Corps (PCSC)

Summary:

PCSC is a loan repayment program for nurse practitioners, certified nurse-midwives, and other types of primary care clinicians who commit to serve three years at designated National Health Service Corps (NHSC) sites in New York State. Awardees receive up to $10,000 per year to repay student loans and is funded by New York State and the Federal NHSC.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF)

To qualify for PSLF, applicant must:

- Be employed by a U.S. federal, state, local, or tribal government or not-for-profit organization (federal service includes U.S. military service);
- Work full-time for that agency or organization;
- Have direct loans (or consolidate other federal student loans into a direct loan);
- Repay your loans under an income-driven repayment plan*; and
- Make 120 qualifying payments.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF)

Pays up to 85% of unpaid nursing education debt for:

- Registered nurses (RNs);
- Advanced practice registered nurses (APRNs); and
- Nurse faculty (NF).

If awarded, applicant must work two years in either:

- A Critical Shortage Facility (CSF)
- An eligible nursing school, as nurse faculty (NF)
