

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Members receive these benefits from LeadingAge New York and LeadingAge through joint membership:

- Personalized technical assistance from staff, state and federal policy analysts and legislative advocates.
- Emergent, service line specific information, and supportive services issues with state and national perspectives including weekly Intelligence electronic newsletter.
- Professional education, information, accreditation and career enhancement programs through national programs and LeadingAge New York's research and education subsidiary, the Foundation for Long Term Care.
- Affordable products and services such as insurance, HR consulting, energy savings, and more, are all offered through LeadingAge New York Services and LeadingAge.
- Access to LeadingAge's extensive group purchasing program, Value First.
- Access to data tools, such as Quality Metrics, a collection of tools to help members better understand their own performance and their market position.