

Osborn Home Care's Michele Thomas Named Rye's Local Business Person of 2022 by Alignable

Rye, NY, February 23, 2022 – Osborn Home Care announced that Michele Thomas, Executive Vice President, has been named Rye's Local Business Person of 2022 by Alignable, the largest online referral network for small businesses in the U.S.

The award resulted from Alignable's national search for leaders who have helped their peers and communities through a turbulent year with several challenges. With more than 7 million members across 35,000+ local communities, Alignable is a network where small business owners drive leads and build trusted relationships.

In addition to her work as an executive VP, Michele Thomas has served as President of SPRYE and a member of the Hospice of Westchester Advisory Board as well as being active with the Alzheimer's Association. She is the incoming president of Rye Rotary, a member of the Rye Senior Advocacy Committee and VP of the LeadingAge NY Home and Community Based Service cabinet.

Osborn Home Care, which provides customized services to residents of Westchester and Fairfield Counties and on The Osborn campus in their own homes, has won numerous awards for its service and training.
