SUBJECT: DOH Issues Press Release Announcing ALP Beds Awarded

ROUTE TO: Administrators

ABSTRACT: ALP SOI awards announced.

DOH issued a press release announcing the awarding of Assisted Living Program (ALP) beds through the recent Solicitation of Interest (SOI) process. We congratulate those NYAHS members that were successful. Those applicants that were not successful should be receiving a letter from DOH shortly explaining their options; applicants have the option to either update their applications or simply resubmit for reconsideration. We expect to see the next round of the SOI process announced in a few weeks. Click here to view the press release.

Applicants whose projects were approved for this first round of the SOI process are:
